

Shop Inkas and help the animals

INKAS has highly-talented supporters who devote an extraordinary amount of time to making beautiful and useful items which they donate to us. We proudly sell these "Handmade in Ivins" items at our fundraisers and community events, using the proceeds to help improve the lives of the homeless animals of Ivins and Santa Clara.

INKAS also sells logo t-shirts and baseball caps, so you can help spread the word about INKAS while helping our furry friends.

INKAS sponsors two events annually:
May Yard Sale
November Fur & Purr Bash

Community sponsors, to whom we are very grateful, also conduct events for the benefit of INKAS.

Each Spring, Red Mountain Resort hosts the Hike for Hounds, during which dogs and their owners get together for a great walk and lunch.

Summer brings Tuacahn's Mutts & Music Concert in the Indoor Hafen Theatre, an event featuring summer show cast members who donate their performances.

HISTORY OF inkas

The INKAS organization was incorporated in November, 2010, but its roots run far deeper. Two of its founders, Connie Butterfield and Lesley Mendenhall (Ivins residents), collaborated with Public Safety Officials to introduce the no-kill philosophy in 2004. They enlisted the assistance of Nathan Winograd, well-known animal advocate and, in 2006, the women's dream became a reality when the Ivins City Council officially adopted a no-kill philosophy by city ordinance.

Tracey Welsh (Santa Clara) and Kim Rubel (Ivins) joined the effort and, in 2010, these four women formed the INKAS organization to promote and support the no-kill status of the Ivins Animal Shelter & Adoption Center.

inkas GROWS

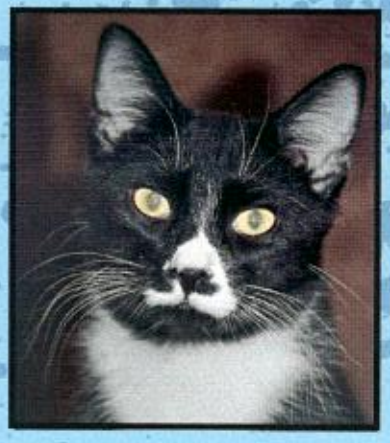

The INKAS organization currently has four Director/Officers, and seven Volunteer Associates (perhaps more when you read this). We are all unpaid, and bring widely diversified backgrounds, talents and skills to the mix, enhancing INKAS ability to serve.

OUR REASON FOR BEING

INKAS' top priority is to get shelter animals adopted into loving homes. The beauties pictured here are representative of the animals we care so much about.

While the cats and dogs are waiting for their special person to take them home, we believe they deserve safe shelter, quality food and compassionate care.

Your donations make it possible for INKAS to say, "Yes, we can do that", when a shelter need is brought to us.
