FIRE & RESCUE

Fire and EMS calls for the month of November totaled 91. Fire crews responded to two structure fires from electrical malfunctions. Both of these fires were in homes located in Ivins City. One home was considered a loss as the fire reached the attic and roof support structures and collapsed. One occupant of the home was treated for smoke inhalation related injuries and has recovered.

The second structure fire was also electrical in nature. Crews arrived to find a strong electrical smell in the home with an unknown location. Crews investigated to find a hidden fire located in the wall of the home and were able to extinguish the fire with light damage to the home.

Trainings:

Department Trainings consisted of After Action Review of fire incidents and command structure. Crews trained on water supply and relay pumping between apparatus using different water supply and connections.

The EMT class is continuing with great support being instructed using in house EMS instructors. Class will continue through mid-December.

News:

A position for a full-time Fire Captain was announced for an in-house hiring. Interviews took place with three candidates. H. Con Fulde was selected and offered a position as Full-time Fire Captain. Con has volunteered with Ivins Fire since 2009 and has been a volunteer Captain for the past four years. We are excited to have Con as a full-time employee!

Wildland:

Wildland season has come to an end. We were exceptionally busy this year. The city benefited with having two trucks out this year compared to years past with only one. A grand total for billed incidents is approximately $521,000. This is the most the program has billed since the program was started by Santa Clara Fire 22 years ago.

We are currently working on next year's Recruit Academy for Wildland Certification. It will start the first part of January and run for one month. Class will be held. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday nights 1800-2200 at Rachel station. This class will be instructed by Ty Hansen and in-house instructors.
