The Ivins City Arts Commission will make recommendations to the City Council based on the extent an application meets each of the following criteria from the Arts Master Plan. The Arts Commission will briefly explain its conclusions for each of these questions.

- Is the proposed subject matter appropriate for City sponsored public art?
- If the proposed project involves installation of public art:
    - Does the artistic style compliment the natural environment?
    - Does the scale of the piece allow ease of viewing?
    - Are appropriate sites available for installation of the proposed project?
- If there are costs to maintain the installed piece, does the cost outweigh the value of the piece to the community?
- Based on the qualifications of the applicant and information in the application, is it reasonable to expect the proposed project will be completed as proposed?
- If the proposed project raises safety concerns, can they be mitigated?
