Sharon Barton: Interest in serving on the City Council Statement

During one of our first trips to St. George we attended the production of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" at the Tuacahn Amphitheater and we knew instantaneously that Ivins is where we wanted to live.

In searching for a home we were always in awe of the beauty of Ivins and soon found how strong the sense of community is for those who live here. Our goal was to become full-time residents living in a non-gated, well-established residential neighborhood. In 2015 we purchased a lot in Padre Canyon Estates and while that house was being built we lived in Copper Canyon. In 2017 we moved into our new home and my sister purchased our Copper Canyon home and moved here from CA.

Since becoming a resident of Ivins in 2015 I have been involved with:

~ INKAS (Ivins No-Kill Animal Supporters): Helped raise funds. Updated the INKAS website and the hand-out brochure. Wrote articles for the monthly community newsletters and developed various marketing pieces for media packets and other events.

~ Switchpoint: Helped with final set-up and opening of Bed 'n Biscuits Dog Daycare facility. Hired staff, wrote policies and procedures and completed community awareness calls.

~ Ivins Night Sky Initiative: Helped design literature and website. Volunteered at events. Staffed the information booth and became a member of the Board last Spring.

~ Ivins Planning Commission and City Council Meetings: Attend meetings on a regular basis. Have participated in several public hearings.

I am familiar with Ivins General Plan and believe the plan allows for development and growth. It also supports maintaining the community and lifestyle for existing residents. The "specialness" of Ivins impacts me every day and I know how fortunate we are to be residents of Ivins. Because of this I want to be a good resident - an involved resident - and make every effort I can to give back to this community. This is why I am interested in being appointed to fill the mid-term vacancy on the Ivins City Council.
