FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On the third of October 2024 The Ivins City Council requested the Planning Commission to review The Annexation Plan
2. This ordinance has been enacted since 2005.

ANALYSIS[1]

The annexation plan is required by Utah State Law prior to any annexation application. The Plan does not state what areas are to be annexed only areas that Ivins would be interested in annexing. Annexation Plan requirements have changed since 2005. It is time to look at what areas are in the annexation plan, what areas have already been annexed by other Jurisdictions and fulfill State law requirements so if an application for annexation is received a proper and informed decision can be made.

RECOMMENDATION

Staff has no recommendations.
