TO: Ivins City Council

FROM: Ivins City Arts Commission

RE: Art-on-Loan Program 2025

DATE: April 3, 2025

Council,

A group of seven judges anonymously reviewed entries to the 2025 Art-on-Loan Program. Included in this jury panel was a representative of the City Council, the owner of a local art gallery and five members of the Arts Commission.

The judging criteria included:

Overall Appearance/Workmanship

- Captures attention and is visually interesting and engaging
- Professionally crafted with an aesthetic quality
- Suitable for the City of Ivins

Originality/Innovation

- Entry is unique
- The artist has used the media in an interesting/new way
- Entry provides a high level of artistic skill

Artwork fits the size requirements listed in the entry form

The call to artists stated that the Council will select up to 6 pieces of original art to be displayed in Ivins City for a period of one year from May 2025 – May 2026. Attached is a PDF with photos of each entry received. The results of the judging process were very close, and each entry received positive critiques from the judges.

The Arts Commission is recommending that the Council select the following six pieces of art for the 2025 Art-on-Loan Program:

Robert Corsetti
"Moonlight Marauders"
Acrylic on canvas 30" X 24"

Elizabeth Fortney
"Turbulence Ahead"
Photography on Canvas 18" X 46"

Adele Greenleaf
"Women's Work"
Transparent Watercolor 29" X 22"

Judith Hutcheson
"Red Mountain BouleView"
Oil Painting on Arches oil paper 34" X 27"

Cheryl Collings & Trent Ripplinger
"Walking Lightly"
Steel & Bronze Sculpture 9' tall, 2.5' wide

Charly Moore
"Skyline View Overlook"
Photography on Metal 30" X 40"