

In this example, View 1 observes about 85% of the roof over 25 ft

In this example, View 2 observes about 60% of the roof over 25 ft

Conclusion: It isn't sufficient to gauge the fraction of roofline over allowed height by simply looking at the end-on view; all views must be considered.